Motivational Strategies for the Classroom

Pupils have a range of "triggers" that promote a healthy engagement in learning. Identifying and utilizing these triggers can help teachers to make a significant impact on improved levels of attainment as well as ensuring that your learners are happy, successful and motivated.

COURSE INFORMATION:

- Identifying and understanding preferred learning styles
- Developing intrinsic and extrinsic rewards
- Be shown rigorous and effective systems of monitoring and evaluation – for your team and yourself
- Utilising the learning space to improve learner motivation
- Exploring the potential offered by some new technologies
- Examining "classroom talk" and how it can impact on improving motivation

COURSE TRAINER

Steve Garnett

Steve Garnett's highly successful teaching career has included specific responsibility for developing Teaching and Learning. He is a very experienced trainer, having supported over 6,000 colleagues in schools across the UK and more recently, Europe and the Middle East. Steve is author of 'Using Brain Power in the Classroom – Five Steps to Accelerate Learning' (described in the TES as 'strong in its resume of what constitutes effective learning'). His training courses are consistently rated as excellent, as delivering value for money and as being highly practical and solution-oriented, saving teachers weeks of time and work every term. Delegate feedback comments regularly feature the words "humorous", "dynamic" and "highly effective."
